UM STUDENT WINS LIBRARY AWARD

MISSOULA --

University of Montana student M.T. "Tiki" Levinson will be awarded a $250 Baker and Taylor/Junior Member Round Table Grassroots Grant at the 1988 Montana Library Association conference April 27-30 in Helena.

Baker and Taylor, a book vendor, provides one such grant to each state annually. The money assists a library science student in attending the state library association conference.

Levinson is a senior in secondary education with an emphasis in social studies and a minor in library media. She grew up in Columbia Falls and went to high school in Plentywood, where her parents, Norman and Alvina Stringfellow, live.
